

STATE OF WEST VIRGINIA

At a Regular Term of the Supreme Court of Appeals continued and held at Charleston, Kanawha County, on the 26th day of November, 1991, the following order was made and entered:

The Committee on Legal Ethics of The West Virginia State Bar, Complainant

vs.) No. 912907

Mark D. Nigh, Respondent

On a former day, to-wit, November 25, 1991, came the Committee on Legal Ethics of The West Virginia State Bar, by Maria Marino Potter, its attorney, and presented to the Court its motion in writing for the entry of an order annulling the respondent's license to practice law in the State of West Virginia and filed therewith an Affidavit Consenting to Disbarment filed by the respondent with the Committee on Legal Ethics of The West Virginia State Bar.

It is therefore considered and ordered that the license of the respondent, Mark D. Nigh, to practice law in the State of West Virginia, be, and it hereby is, annulled effective this date. It is further ordered that the respondent reimburse the Committee on Legal Ethics of The West Virginia State Bar for the costs incurred in the investigation of the above-captioned proceeding.

Service of a copy of this order upon the respondent by certified mail, return receipt requested, shall
