

STATE OF WEST VIRGINIA

At a Regular Term of the Supreme Court of Appeals continued and held at Charleston, Kanawha County, on the 28th of February, 2007, the following order was made and entered:

Lawyer Disciplinary Board, Petitioner

vs.) No. 33181

Rodney S. Justice, a member of The
West Virginia State Bar, Respondent

On a former day, to-wit, January 26, 2007, came the Hearing Panel Subcommittee of the Lawyer Disciplinary Board, by Andrea J. Hinerman, its attorney, pursuant to Rule 3.20 of the Rules of the Lawyer Disciplinary Procedure, and presented to the Court its written recommended disposition in this reciprocal discipline matter, recommending that the same sanction as the Kentucky Supreme Court issued be imposed; thus suspending Rodney S. Justice's West Virginia law license for thirty days with automatic reinstatement to the practice of law at the completion of the thirty day period pursuant to and in compliance with Rule 3.31 of the West Virginia Rules of Lawyer Disciplinary Procedure.

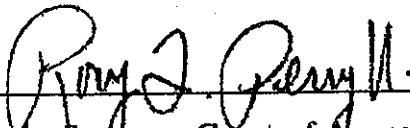

Upon consideration whereof, the Court is of opinion to and doth hereby concur with the written recommendation disposition of the Hearing Panel Subcommittee of the Lawyer Disciplinary Board. It is therefore ordered that the Respondent's license to practice law in the State of West Virginia is hereby suspended for thirty (30) days with automatic reinstatement to the practice of law at the completion of the thirty (30) day period. Justice Albright, in accord with the language of Rule 3.20, Rules of Lawyer Disciplinary Procedure, would impose the same discipline as was imposed in Kentucky, for the same time period, not a subsequent time period, and if the balance of the Court considers that impossible he would then reduce the West Virginia sanction to a reprimand.
