

STATE OF WEST VIRGINIA

At a Regular Term of the Supreme Court of Appeals continued and held at Charleston, Kanawha County, on the 5th of July, 2001, the following order was made and entered:

Lawyer Disciplinary Board, Complainant

vs.) No. 27865

Jacob M. Robinson, a member of The West Virginia State Bar, Respondent

On a former day, to-wit, June 1, 2001, came the Hearing Panel Subcommittee of the Lawyer Disciplinary Board, by William B. Richardson, Jr., its chairperson, pursuant to Rule 3.10 of the Rules of Lawyer Disciplinary Procedure, and presented to the Court its Agreed Findings of Fact, Conclusions of Law and Recommendation in the above-captioned case recommending that respondent: (1) receive an admonishment; (2) improve his office practice procedures and refuse to aid or allow non-lawyers under his supervision to engage in the practice of law; (3) attend eight (8) hours of Continuing Legal Education on ethics or office practice procedure before April 1, 2002; and (4) reimburse the Lawyer Disciplinary Board for the costs and expenses incurred in the investigation of this matter in the amount of Eighty-Three Dollars and Twenty-Five Cents ($83.25), for violating Rule 7.1(a) of the Rules of Professional Conduct.

Upon consideration whereof, the Court is of opinion to and doth hereby adopt the aforesaid recommendation for violating Rule 7.1(a) of the Rules of Professional Conduct. It is therefore ordered that the respondent, Jacob M. Robinson, be, and he hereby is, admonished. It is further ordered that the respondent shall improve his office practice procedures and refuse to aid or allow non-lawyers under his supervision to engage in the practice of law. It is further ordered that the respondent shall attend eight (8) hours of Continuing Legal Education on or before the 1st day of April, 2002, on the topic of ethics or office practice procedures. It is finally ordered that the respondent shall reimburse the Lawyer Disciplinary Board for the costs and expenses incurred in the investigation of this matter in the amount of Eighty-Three Dollars and Twenty-Five Cents ($83.25).

Service of an attested copy of this order shall constitute sufficient notice of the contents herein.
