

STATE OF WEST VIRGINIA

5 0 2001

At a Regular Term of the Supreme Court of Appeals continued and held at Charleston, Kanawha County, on the 6th of September, 2001, the following order was made and entered:

In Re: Petition for Voluntary Resignation of Philip Reed Strauss from The West Virginia State Bar

No. 29761

On a former day, to-wit, June 4, 2001, came the petitioner, Philip Reed Strauss, pursuant to Rule 3.26(a) of the Rules of Lawyer Disciplinary Procedure, and presented to the Court his petition seeking to voluntarily resign as a member of The West Virginia State Bar and to have his name stricken from the rolls thereof. Thereafter, on the 13th day of July, 2001, came the Investigative Panel of the Lawyer Disciplinary Board, by Allan N. Karlin, its chairperson, pursuant to Rule 3.26(c) of the Rules of Lawyer Disciplinary Procedure, and presented to the Court its written recommendation thereto.

There having been heard neither consent nor objection from either the Office of Disciplinary Counsel or the petitioner, pursuant to Rule 3.26(d) of the Rules of Lawyer Disciplinary Procedure, the Court is of opinion to and doth hereby grant said petition of the petitioner, Philip Reed Strauss, to voluntarily resign from The West Virginia State Bar. It is therefore ordered that the petitioner, Philip Reed Strauss, has leave to voluntarily resign from The West Virginia State Bar and his name shall be stricken from the rolls thereof. It is finally ordered that the petitioner shall comply with the client notification requirements of Rule 3.28 of the Rules of Lawyer Disciplinary Procedure if applicable.

Service of an attested copy of this order shall constitute sufficient notice of the contents herein.
