

STATE OF WEST VIRGINIA

At a Regular Term of the Supreme Court of Appeals continued and held at Charleston, Kanawha County, on the 11th of December, 2001, the following order was made and entered:

Lawyer Disciplinary Board, Complainant

vs.) No. 29764

Kimberly Carr Dodrill, a suspended member of The West Virginia State Bar, Respondent

On a former day, to-wit, October 23, 2001, came the Hearing Panel Subcommittee of the Lawyer Disciplinary Board, by Nancy C. Hill, its chairperson, pursuant to this Court's order entered on the 2nd day of May, 2001, directing that a hearing be held within ninety days, and presented to the Court its written recommended disposition recommending that: (1) the license to practice law in the State of West Virginia of the respondent, Kimberly Carr Dodrill, a suspended member of The West Virginia State Bar, be suspended for two years; and (2) requiring conditions for the reinstatement of respondent's license to practice law in the State of West Virginia to be: (a) respondent must prove by medical evidence and expert testimony that she is mentally and physically fit to resume the practice of law, (b) respondent be required to make full restitution to the complainants in the Statement of Charges and/or to the Client Protection Fund of The West Virginia State Bar; and (c) respondent be required to reimburse the Lawyer Disciplinary Board for the costs incurred in the investigation of this matter.

Upon consideration whereof, the Court is of opinion to and doth hereby adopt the recommendations of the Hearing Panel Subcommittee of the Lawyer Disciplinary Board. It is therefore ordered that the license of the respondent, Kimberly Carr Dodrill, be, and it hereby is, suspended for two years. It is further ordered that in order to reinstate her license to practice law in the State of West Virginia, the respondent shall prove by medical evidence and expert testimony that she is mentally and physically fit to resume the practice of law, shall make full restitution to the complainants listed in the Statement of Charges and/or to the Client Protection Fund of The West Virginia State Bar, and shall reimburse the Lawyer Disciplinary Board for the costs incurred in the investigation of this matter.

Service of an attested copy of this order shall constitute sufficient notice of the contents herein.
