

WEST VIRGINIA
BOARD OF LAWYER DISCIPLINARY ACTION
APR 29 2002
RECEIVED

STATE OF WEST VIRGINIA

At a Regular Term of the Supreme Court of Appeals continued and held at Charleston, Kanawha County, on the 24th of April, 2002, the following order was made and entered:

Lawyer Disciplinary Board, Complainant

vs.) No. 28886

Kevin A. Wade, a member of The West Virginia State Bar, Respondent

On a former day, to-wit, March 26, 2002, came the Hearing Panel Subcommittee of the Lawyer Disciplinary Board, by William B. Richardson, Jr., its chairperson, pursuant to Rule 3.10 of the Rules of Lawyer Disciplinary Procedure, and presented to the Court its written recommended disposition recommending that the respondent, Kevin A. Wade, a member of The West Virginia State Bar, recommending that respondent: (1) be admonished; (2) be required to complete three hours of additional continuing legal education and law office management for a total of six hours in addition to the three hours normally required in a reporting period; (3) undergo a supervised practice for eighteen months; and (4) be required to reimburse the Lawyer Disciplinary Board for the costs incurred in the investigation of this matter.

Upon consideration whereof, the Court is of opinion to and doth hereby adopt the aforesaid recommendations in part. It is hereby ordered that the respondent, Kevin A. Wade, a member of The West Virginia State Bar, be, and he hereby is, admonished. It is further ordered that the respondent complete three hours of additional continuing legal education and law office management for a total of six hours in addition to the three hours normally required in a reporting period. Chief Justice Davis would have required a supervised practice and the reimbursement of costs. Justice Starcher did not participate in the consideration or decision of this case.

Service of an attested copy of this order upon all parties shall constitute sufficient notice of the contents herein.
