

STATE OF WEST VIRGINIA

At a Regular Term of the Supreme Court of Appeals continued and held at Charleston, Kanawha County, on the 27th of May, 2014, the following order was made and entered:

Lawyer Disciplinary Board,
Petitioner

vs.) No. 13-0478

Donna M. Price, a member of The West
Virginia State Bar, Respondent

On April 11, 2014, the Hearing Panel Subcommittee of the Lawyer Disciplinary Board, by John W. Cooper, its chairperson, pursuant to Rule 3.10 of the Rules of Lawyer Disciplinary Procedure, presented to the Court its written recommended disposition in this matter, recommending that: (1) respondent receive a formal public reprimand for her conduct; (2) respondent follow a plan of supervised practice for a period of three years with a supervising attorney, consistent with the specifications set forth by the Office of Disciplinary Counsel.; (3) during the three years that respondent participates in a plan of supervised practice, that she also complete a total of 27 additional hours of continuing legal education, with 9 additional hours per year, in the following areas: ethics and office management, civil and criminal procedure, or in substantive areas in which she intends to practice law; and (4) respondent be compelled to pay for one-half of the costs of this proceeding pursuant to Rule 3.15 of the Rules of Disciplinary Procedure.

Upon consideration whereof, the Court does concur with the recommendation and does hereby approve the recommendation of the Hearing Panel Subcommittee. It is therefore ordered that: (1) the respondent be, and she hereby is, reprimanded for her conduct in this matter; (2) the respondent shall follow a supervised practice plan, with specifications set forth by the Office of Disciplinary Counsel with a supervising attorney agreed upon by the respondent and the Office of Disciplinary Counsel, for a three-year period to run concurrent with the supervised practice ordered in Lawyer Disciplinary Board v. Donna Price, No. 11-1345; (3) during the same three-year period of supervised practice respondent shall complete an additional nine hours per year of continuing legal education in ethics and/or office management, civil and criminal procedure, or any other substantive areas in which she intends to practice law, for a total of twenty-seven hours over the three-year period, in addition to the hours she will already be required to complete; and (4) respondent shall pay for one-half of the costs of this proceeding pursuant to Rule 3.15 of the Rules of Disciplinary Procedure.
