In re Petition for Reinstatement of MARK A. GLOVER, a suspended member of The West Virginia State Bar

No. 22-588

ORDER

On July 22, 2022, the petitioner Mark A. Glover, a suspended member of the West Virginia State Bar, filed a petition for reinstatement of his license to practice law in the State of West Virginia.

On October 13, 2023, the Hearing Panel Subcommittee of the Lawyer Disciplinary Board, by its Chair Stephen M. Mathias, in accordance with Rule 3.32(c) of the Rules of Lawyer Disciplinary Procedure, filed with the Court its written report and recommendation, recommending that the petitioner's license to practice law in the State of West Virginia be reinstated with certain conditions.

The petitioner Mark A. Glover, self-represented, and the respondent Office of Lawyer Disciplinary Counsel (ODC), by Kristin P. Halkias, Lawyer Disciplinary Counsel, filed separate consents to the recommendation on October 16, 2023.

Upon consideration and review on March 14, 2024, the Court is of the opinion to and does adopt the recommendation, and the petition for reinstatement is granted with certain conditions, as set forth. It is ORDERED that the license to practice of law in the State of West Virginia of Mark A. Glover is reinstated, subject to the following conditions:

- (1) The petitioner's practice of law shall be supervised for a two-year period by an attorney in good standing with the West Virginia State Bar, pursuant to written agreement between the petitioner, the supervising attorney, and the ODC. The agreement shall, among other matters, require the supervising attorney to meet at least twice per month with the petitioner and have complete access to the petitioner's files, calendar, and trust account. The supervising attorney shall file monthly reports with the ODC and respond to inquiries by the ODC. The petitioner shall be candid and cooperative with the supervising attorney and shall follow his or her recommendations and directives. The petitioner's license to practice law shall not be reinstated until this agreement is executed by all parties;

- (2) The petitioner shall provide quarterly statements to the ODC for a period of two years after reinstatement of his license to practice law, accounting for the receipt and disbursement of all client funds during the quarter;
- (3) For a period of two years after reinstatement of his license to practice law, the petitioner shall provide to the ODC an annual account, performed by an outside certified public accountant, of all client funds received and disbursed for the year;
- (4) Prior to reinstatement of his license to practice law, the petitioner shall pay all of his outstanding dues to the West Virginia State Bar and complete all currently required mandatory continuing legal education; and
- (5) The petitioner shall reimburse the Lawyer Disciplinary Board the costs of these reinstatement proceedings pursuant to Rule 3.15 of the Rules of Lawyer Disciplinary Procedure.

Justice Hutchison would not adopt the recommendation of the hearing panel subcommittee regarding the petitioner's payment of the costs of the reinstatement proceeding due to the inordinate amount of time between the filing of the petition for reinstatement and the filing of the hearing panel subcommittee's recommendation.

Chief Justice Armstead did not participate in the consideration or decision of this matter.
