

At a Regular Term of the Supreme Court of Appeals, continued and held at Charleston, Kanawha County, on April 3, 2023, the following order was made and entered:

Office of Lawyer Disciplinary Counsel,
Petitioner

vs.) No. 23-50

Phillip R. Amick, a member of
The West Virginia State Bar,
Respondent

ORDER

On January 25, 2023, the Office of Lawyer Disciplinary Counsel, by Rachael L. Fletcher Cipoletti, Chief Lawyer Disciplinary Counsel, in accordance with Rule 3.25 of the Rules of Lawyer Disciplinary Procedure, filed a petition for disbarment to request that the Court accept the annulment of the license to practice law in the State of West Virginia of the respondent, Phillip R. Amick, and the formal affidavit, under seal, of the respondent consenting to voluntary disbarment. The petition further request dismissal of the pending statement of charges in Lawyer Disciplinary Board v. Amick, Supreme Court Docket No. 22-569.

Upon consideration and review on March 30, 2023, the Court does grant the petition. It is ORDERED that, pursuant to Rule 3.25 of the Rules of Lawyer Disciplinary Procedure, the license to practice law in the State of West Virginia of the respondent, Phillip R. Amick, is annulled by voluntary consent.

The Court reminds Phillip R. Amick and the Office of Lawyer Disciplinary Counsel that annulment of Phillip R. Amick's license to practice law in the State of West Virginia does not preclude sanctions in this matter or any other concurrent disciplinary matter. "As a general rule, the annulment of a lawyer's license to practice law does not moot or void sanctions imposed in relation to a prior or concurrent disciplinary matter unless the subsequent or concurrent annulment contains language specifically voiding other properly imposed sanctions.” Syl. Pt. 5, Lawyer Disciplinary Board v. Tyson, No. 20-1027, 2022 WL 4017399 (Nov. 3, 2022 W.Va.)
