OFFICE OF DISCIPLINARY COUNSEL

STATE OF WEST VIRGINIA

At a Regular Term of the Supreme Court of Appeals continued and held at Charleston, Kanawha County, on the 27th of October, 2010, the following order was made and entered:

Lawyer Disciplinary Board, Petitioner

vs.) No. 35434

April D. Conner, a member of the West Virginia State Bar, Respondent

On a former day, to-wit, September 3, 2010, came the Hearing Panel Subcommittee of the Lawyer Disciplinary Board, by David A. Jividen, its chairperson, pursuant to Rule 3.10 of the Rules of Lawyer Disciplinary Procedure, and presented to the Court its written recommended disposition in this matter, stipulated to by the parties, recommending that: (1) the respondent be reprimanded; (2) the respondent refund the unearned portion of the fee to her client James W. Hendrickson in the amount of $5,143.98; (3) respondent's practice be supervised for a period of one year by an attorney agreed upon between the Office of Disciplinary Counsel and the respondent; (4) during the one year of supervised practice, respondent continue with any treatment as prescribed by her treating physician or psychologist; (5) during the one year of supervised practice, respondent perform fifty hours of pro bono service to the Pro Bono Referral Project or a like entity; and (6) respondent pay the costs of this disciplinary proceeding.

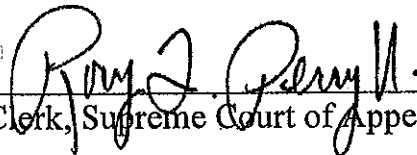

Upon consideration whereof, the Court is of opinion to and doth hereby adopt the written recommended disposition of the Hearing Panel Subcommittee of the Lawyer Disciplinary Board with the exception that recommendation No. 5 regarding pro bono service is hereby not adopted. It is therefore ordered that: (1) the respondent be, and she hereby is, reprimanded; (2) the respondent shall refund the unearned portion of the fee to her client James W. Hendrickson in the amount of $5,143.98; (3) respondent's practice shall be supervised for a period of one year by an attorney agreed upon between the Office of Disciplinary Counsel and the respondent; (4) during the one year of supervised practice, respondent shall continue with any treatment as prescribed by her treating physician or psychologist; and (5) respondent shall pay the costs of this disciplinary proceeding in the amount of $1,962.46.

Service of an attested copy of this order shall constitute sufficient notice of its contents.
