STATE OF WEST VIRGINIA

At a Regular Term of the Supreme Court of Appeals continued and held at Charleston, Kanawha County, on the 9ᵗʰ day of September 2010, the following order was made and entered:

Office of Lawyer Disciplinary Counsel, Petitioner

v.) No. 35668

Jessica A. Sullivan, a member of the West
Virginia State Bar, Respondent

On a former day, to-wit, July 8, 2010, came the Office of Disciplinary Counsel, by Rachael L. Fletcher Cipoletti, Chief Lawyer Disciplinary Counsel, pursuant to Rule 3.27 of the Rules of Lawyer Disciplinary Procedure, seeking the immediate suspension of the license to practice law in the State of West Virginia of the respondent, and pursuant to Rule 3.29, Rules of Lawyer Disciplinary Procedure, requesting that this Court authorize the chief judge of the Circuit Court of Jackson County to appoint an attorney licensed to practice law in the State of West Virginia to inventory respondent's files and to take such action as seems indicated to protect the interest of the respondent and her clients for the reasons stated therein.

Thereafter, on July 15, 2010, came the respondent, Jessica Anne Sullivan, and presented to the Court her response in opposition to the above-captioned petition.
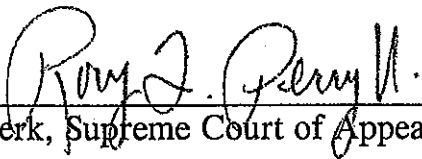

Upon consideration whereof, the Court is of opinion to and doth hereby grant said petition. It is therefore ordered that the license to practice law in the State of West Virginia of Jessica A. Sullivan, be, and it hereby is, suspended. It is further ordered that the Honorable Thomas C. Evans, III, Chief Judge of the Circuit Court of Jackson County, be, and he hereby is, authorized to appoint an attorney to inventory the respondent's files and to take such action as seems indicated to protect the interests of the respondent and his clients. Justice Ketchum would refuse.

Service of a copy of this order upon the respondent and upon the Honorable Thomas C. Evans, III, Chief Judge, shall constitute sufficient notice of the contents herein.
